

UAI LIBRARIES

Universidad Adolfo Ibáñez, through its three Libraries, provides the students, professors and researchers, resources and services aimed at supporting the learning process, scientific production and university activities. Thus, it is a meeting place around academic and leisure literature.

Quick view

Activate your Library account.

Your library account is automatically created and activated when you enroll in the university.

Books.

More than 74 thousand titles available through an online catalogue aimed to meet your needs of academic or leisure reading.

eBooks.

You will also have available the titles that are requested the most in the courses of marketing, economy, calculus, physics, among others, to read them online or to download them in your computer.

> See more

Databases.

The UAI Libraries make several resources available to do research and learn. These databases allow downloading academic articles, study cases, statistics, among others. You can log in from the campus or your house employing remote access.

> See more

Journals.

75 academic journals either in digital format or printed, they are a complement to the Databases. > See more

Study rooms.

Equipped with whiteboards and computers, book them through Webcursos with up to seven days in advance. > See more iPad and Kindle.

Borrow them and carry more than a thousand titles in your pocket. By borrowing a Kindle, you will have immediate access to more than 800 titles and to a collection oriented to do initial research.

Films and Documentaries.

More than 2000 titles to enjoy in the library (available in Biblioteca de Pregrado Santiago). > See more

How to borrow from the Library

Visit the library catalogue and write down the order number:

Pick it up from the shelves or ask a librarian for help so they can help you to find it.

To borrow a book, come to the library counter with your ID or Passport.

To learn how to make a reservation or renew a loan from home, check your loan history or check return dates, click here.

Remote login

To see content available online, such as ebooks or academic articles from Databases, you have to log in.

Your e-mail account: yourname@alumnos.uai.cl

Password: you UAI e-mail account password

iPad, Kindle and Calculators

The Library provides access to iPads, Kindle and Calculators. To borrow any of these devices, come to the library counter with your ID or Passport.

- iPad: borrow it for up to 2 days, non-renewable.
- Kindle: borrow it for up to 7 days, renewable for 7 days more through the catalogue.
- Calculators: borrow them for the day.

Libraries and study rooms

UAI has three Libraries, two located in the Santiago campus: The Undergraduate Library (Biblioteca de Pregrado) in Edificio A and the Postgraduate Library (Biblioteca de Postgrado) in Edificio C. The third library is located in the Viña del Mar campus and is oriented to meet the needs of all of the users of that location.

Each library has spaces for both individual and group study. It also has study rooms, areas with computers, others to watch films available in the library, among others. To learn more, visit your library.